

Hilltribes Visit and Village Integration >>>

This is not the usual tourist tour of hilltribes but more of solidarity in learning about their cultures and joining in their daily activities, such as planting, harvesting, gathering of forest products, among others. These will all be managed directly by the hilltribes themselves and income will be used as a community fund. The visit can be from 1-3 or more days. Guests will enjoy a home stay experience, and simple facilities and meals. The village integration will start officially in December 2014.

Resource Center of AIPP >>>

INA house offers the public use of the Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP) resource center/library on indigenous issues, with books and publications, as well as video and other audio-visual materials. Our resource center also has two computers with wifi connections, a printer, a scanner and a photo-copier for the use of guests.

Balconies >>>

We have a balcony on the 2nd floor for dining, reading and working. The 5th floor balcony has an excellent view of the Ping River. It is a great spot for hanging out and for small events. It has a capacity of 30 persons.

HOUSE

INA House is a charitable initiative to support indigenous women, affiliated with Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP).

About INA House

Indigenous Asia- INA House is a nonprofit initiative of the Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP), which supports indigenous women in Southeast and South Asia.

“Ina” means mother in indigenous languages in the Cordillera, Philippines and also Malaysia, among others. All our staff are indigenous peoples from Asia, mainly from the Lisu, Akha and Karen hill tribes in Thailand. We also have volunteers from different countries.

Our Services and Facilities:

It features accommodation and conference facilities, indigenous handicraft centre, AIPP resource centre/library, restaurant with indigenous food from the entire region, and spaces for exhibits, food fair, cultural and other events.

Conference Room >>>

INA house conference room can accommodate up to 30 persons. The room is fully equipped with air conditioning, LCD projector and screen and sound system with wireless microphones, interpretation equipment and wifi. Conference participants can use the resource center, as well as the balconies on the 2nd floor and 5th for small group-discussions/working groups. We offer attractive packages for conference organization, with full catering, accommodation and preparation of conference kits etc.

Coffee Shop >>>

We offer you the best organic Arabica coffee from the hill tribes of Thailand. You can have a choice of regular coffee, espresso, cappuccino, café latte and French press. We also have black and green teas, and two types of fresh juice, made by INA House. We bake our own bread and cakes on the premises, as well as make our own yogurt and cottage cheese.

Handicrafts >>>

You can buy various hand made products designed by different indigenous peoples from across Asia. You will find textiles from Naga and Chin weavers, bags and table runners crafted by indigenous peoples from the Cordillera, silk and embroidery from the indigenous peoples of Laos and Vietnam, and bags from Jhark and, among many others. INA house also sells organic coffee, tea and wild honey from the hill tribes of Thailand, hemp products crafted by peoples from Nepal, colored wood carvings from Toraja and traditional bead work from indigenous peoples.

Restaurant >>>

We serve organic, indigenous food. INA House is vegetarian-friendly but we also serve meat and fish. You will have the opportunity to taste our favorite indigenous dishes, such as Chakma fish, Naga spicy pork, Karen tamarind shoot salad, Lisu pork lahp and winged-bean salad. All of our dishes are made from natural and fresh ingredients. We do not use MSG or artificial flavors.

Guest House >>>

INA guest House offers a flexible and diverse range of accommodations. We have a capacity of 30 persons, catering for both short-term and long-term accommodations in 3-bed rooms or in private rooms. All our rooms come fully equipped with working tables, lamps, wifi, towels, high-quality mattresses and either fans or air-conditioning.
